NOTICE OF SPECIAL MASTER DETERMINATION

Class Members Gary C. Bernhard and his spouse Elizabeth A. Bernhard (“Appellants), appealed the decision of the Claims Administrator (“Appellee”) in rendering a Final Determination dated August 13, 2003 on Appellants’ claims for benefits from the Sulzer Settlement Trust.

Appellants appealed the decision of the Appellee, and contend that Appellee erred in his decision to award a net benefit amount of Zero Dollars ($0.00) to Appellants.

The factual findings of this matter are as follows:

1. Appellants submitted an untimely Blue Form seeking Unrevised APR benefits and an untimely Yellow Form seeking Derivative Claimant benefits on December 9, 2002.
2. On April 15, 2003 Appellee did issue Preliminary Determinations that Appellants were not eligible for Settlement benefits because their claims had not been submitted before the applicable deadline in accordance with the requirements of the Settlement Agreement.
3. On August 13, 2003 Appellee issued Final Determinations that Appellants were not eligible for Settlement benefits because they did not file their claims before the deadline.
4. Appellants have not submitted any evidence demonstrating that their failure to submit timely claim forms was caused by circumstances giving rise to a permissible extension of time under CAP 29.

After a thorough review of the appeal submitted by the Appellants and the response submitted by the Appellee, the Special Master finds as follows:

Appellants herein admit their filings were untimely. They seek to excuse their late filings on family concerns.

Appellee's obligation under the Settlement Agreement is to preserve the Trust for the benefit of those who comply with the deadlines, and to grant extensions when properly demonstrated.

In granting extensions he must examine the reasons for an extension in light of the applicable law.

The Special Master is to apply the abuse of discretion standard in reviewing the Final Determination of the Claims Administrator.

In examining Appellants' excuse based on family concerns, the Appellee did not abuse his discretion in denying the requested extension.

By order of the Special Master, Appellee's Final Determination of Zero Dollars ($0.00) is hereby AFFIRMED.

Appellants and Appellee have fifteen days from the date of this decision to file with the Court, for the Special Master's review, a fact or principle they believe the Special Master did not consider in rendering a decision. If no response is received by November 21, 2003, then the Special Master's Decision is final and may not be further contested or appealed.
